Economically Disadvantaged (DA) Eligibility Requirement

Economic Eligibility Criteria (for students who do not identify as African American, Latino, Native American or Alaskan American).
A student is considered economically disadvantaged if he or she meets the 2016-17 New York State Opportunity Programs income eligibility criteria found on Page 3 of this application.

Exceptions
Reference to the household income scale need not be made if the student falls into one of the following categories, and documentation is available:

a. The student's family is the recipient of: (1) Family Assistance Program Aid; or (2) Safety Net Assistance through the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, or a county department of social services; or (3) family day-care payments through the New York State Office of Children and Family Services Assistance, or a county department of social services; (4) receiving reduced or free lunch in school
b. The student is living with foster parents and no monies are provided from the natural parents; or
c. The student is a ward of the State or a county
d. The student received free or reduced lunch at his or her secondary school
Note on Documentation of Economic Eligibility:
CEYE prefers reduced or free lunch documentation as proof of disadvantaged status.

What if I am a student applicant that is not from an underrepresented or disadvantaged background?

- Subject to funding and availability, CEYE may consider non-URM and non-DA applicants. Please be advised that these limited slots are extremely competitive and are outside of our primary target population.

Students may apply to more than one program. Please rank your preferences in “program of interest” line. Only one essay is necessary for submission.

A completed application includes:

- Full response to each item line
- Consent forms and Medical Clearance Form
- Copy of your latest transcript
- At least 1 letter of recommendation from a science teacher, math teacher and/or other appropriate professional
- Essay

Essay Expectations:

- 600-800 words, double-spaced
- Introduce yourself and elaborate on how you see this program furthering your future career goals. Please share your passion, dedication and demonstrated interest in the sciences.

All items are to be submitted together. If a document is not included, please include a note of explanation and the date it can be expected.Incomplete applications will not be considered.

APPENDIX
GUIDELINES FOR STUDENT ELIGIBILITY

The Science and Technology Entry Program is designed for students attending secondary school (grades 7-12) in New York State who are either minorities historically underrepresented in the scientific, technical, health related and licensed professions, or economically disadvantaged as defined below. For the purpose of STEP, minorities historically underrepresented in the scientific, technical, health related and licensed professions include residents of New York State who are African American, American Indian/Alaska Native or Hispanic. If you are economically disadvantaged, you may be eligible for STEP. Please refer to the guidelines below and provide the required documentation.

For the purpose of STEP, a student is considered a New York State resident if he or she resides in New York State and has lived in New York State for the last two terms of school prior to entry into the STEP Program, or has resided in New York State for at least 12 months immediately preceding the first term for which he or she is seeking participation in the STEP Program.

The economic eligibility standards set forth in this Appendix apply only at the time of application to the Science and Technology Entry Program. Once admitted, a participant may continue to receive services, even if the family income rises above the current eligibility standards.

1. Economic Eligibility Criteria for First-Time Students

For the purpose of STEP, a student is economically disadvantaged if he or she meets the income eligibility criteria outlined in the table below (economic disadvantage documentation would be a copy of the parent or legal guardian’s signed most recent year’s tax returns (IRS form 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ or 4506).

Additional documentation of household income need not be collected to determine eligibility under economic disadvantage if the student falls into one of the following categories, and documentation is available to demonstrate:

- The student’s family is the recipient of family assistance program aid or safety net assistance through the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance or a county department of social services; or is the recipient of family day-care payments through the New York State Office of Children and Family Services or a county department of social services;
- The student is living with foster parents and no monies are provided from the natural parents; or
- The student is a ward of the State or a county.
- The student receives free or reduced lunch at his or her secondary school (verified by the school).

2. Exceptions

Reference to the household income scale need not be made if the student falls into one of the following categories and documentation is available:

a. The student’s family is the recipient of (1) Family Assistance Program Aid, or (2) Safety Net Assistance through the New York State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, or a county Department of Social Services, or (3) family day care payments through the New York State Office of Children and Family Services Assistance, or a county Department of Social Services.

b. The student is a ward of the State or a county.

3. Documentation

Please provide only ONE of the following documents.

The following shall be acceptable documentation of economic eligibility:

a. Preferred - Reduced or free lunch documentation from high school or the state.

b. Documentation of all income, earned dividends and interest: a signed copy of appropriate year’s tax return (IRS Forms 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ, or 4506).

c. Documentation of a sole worker’s income from two or more employers: W2’s for the appropriate year or similar documentation acceptable to the Commissioner.

d. Documentation of no income: a copy of IRS Form 4506 which has been filed by the student or family with the Internal Revenue Service or a copy of IRS Letter 1722 indicating that the student or parent did not file a return.

e. Documentation of pension, annuity, or unemployment benefits: letter from the applicable agency showing appropriate year’s total award (if not reported on IRS Forms 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ or 1099).

f. Documentation of Social Security, Supplemental Security Income, or Veterans Administration non-educational benefits: a letter from the applicable agency showing applicable year’s total award for each member of the household, including Medicare premiums or IRS Form 1099 for each member of the household.

g. Documentation of Social Services payments: verification from a branch of the State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance, Office of Children and Family Services Assistance, or a county department of Social Services showing year that benefits were received and names of recipients including the applicant.

h. Documentation of child support and/or alimony: a court order, affidavit.

i. Documentation of additional members in household: birth certificates, marriage certificates, third-party verification, or similar documentation acceptable to the Commissioner, along with proof of income or lack of income for each such member.

4. OSIS ID

NYC DOE OSIS number is a nine-digit number that is issued to all students who attend a New York City public school. The number can be found on your ID card or transcript.
