

New Industry-Sponsored Study

The CTO has developed a process in which research projects will be handled within the Department of Medicine. The purpose of the process is to streamline and efficiently facilitate how clinical trials are implemented from start to finish.

