Deloitte Life Sciences & Health Care works to improve health care delivery by focusing on consulting, technology, operations, regulatory issues, and strategy. Deloitte is offering a one-year fellowship to Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai medical students who are interested in a challenging program offering business training and leadership development. Fellows will be integrated into Deloitte teams and can expect to gain new perspectives on healthcare systems and strategies, professional development opportunities, and access to dynamic colleagues.

Eligibility:
The fellowship is offered to students who have completed their third year of medical school. Please see Scholarly Year Guidelines by going to the MSRO blackboard page, or by clicking here.

Fellowship Award:
The student will receive a competitive salary and health insurance.

Program Details:
- One year program, following year three of medical school.
- Students will be required to complete a scholarly product. The scholarly product will vary, based upon the student’s experience.

Application:
Interested students should submit a cover letter expressing their interest, accompanied by a CV. In the letter, please include a statement allowing the selection committee to review your school record, which would include grades, clerkship comments, and board scores.

Please send your application to medicalstudentresearch@mssm.edu. Subject line should read “Deloitte Application.”

Application Deadline: January 2017
