

Campus Phone System

Campus Phone System – Within the main campus, you can phone colleagues using their five-digit extension rather than a full seven-digit phone number. Using extensions saves you time and saves the Medical Center money. The first digit of the extension depends on the location of the party you wish to call; the last four digits of the extension are exactly the same as the last four digits of the regular phone number.

If you are phoning someone at:	Full Phone Number	1 st Digit of Extension	Extension
Most Campus Locations (except as noted below)	241-xxxx	4	4xxxx
Icahn Medical Institute (98th Street @ Madison Avenue)	659-xxxx	8	8xxxx
Center for Advance Medicine (102nd Street)	824-xxxx	5	5xxxx
94 th Street Offices	731-xxxx	2	2xxxx

Examples: Annenberg phone # 241-1111 → extension 41111

Icahn phone # 659-9999 → extension 89999
