

Maria Mercedes

Graduate Student (T32 Awardee)

Maria received her BA/BS in Spanish Literature and Biology at Brooklyn College (CUNY). She has a master's degree in Biomedical Science from Drexel University. She joined the lab on Fall 2021 and is interested in epigenetic regulators in epidermal stem cell control. As a first-generation student, she advocates for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) in STEM.