KidZone TV Internship in The Child Life and Creative Arts Therapy Department

KidZone TV at Mount Sinai Kravis Children's Hospital in New York City is an interactive broadcast studio where live programming is produced and aired three times a day, seven days a week, for pediatric patients and families within the hospital. We are always on top of the latest technology and trends including, 3D Printing, robots, and more! KidZone TV Interns are 100% hands-on and are included in creative decisions. We provide a fun and creative learning environment where fresh ideas are found every day.

Work Expectations/Outcomes

- Learn and perform all daily elements of live production including hosting, technical direction, camera operation, and graphic design.
- Each intern will create their own 30-minute program from concept to execution, with the purpose of engaging our patient community.
- Interns will be immersed in the Child Life and Creative Arts Therapy Department, observing firsthand how our clinical team provides pediatric patient- and family-centered care.
- Interns assist with in-house special project filming for KZTV.
- Interns will assist KZTV staff during celebrity visits and special events.
- Assist with KZTV in-house promotion with our patients and families on the unit and at bedside.
- Upon completion of the internship, students will be able to receive footage from KZTV for their portfolio. Notice: Due to HIPAA laws KZTV reserves the right to edit out any non-consented patient information.
- Interns have the option to work weekends if they prefer.

Requirements

- Will receive academic credit for internship
- Completion of a minimum of 16 hours per week (Summer) or 8 hours per week (Fall / Spring Semester)
- Clearance of hospital's interview and application process
- Prior work experiences with children and/or adolescents is a plus

Please send a resume and two professional/academic letters of recommendation to contact below by December 1st for Spring, April 1st for Summer, or September 1st for Fall
