

Curriculum for Master of Science in Genetic Counseling Class of 2019

First Year: Fall ¹	First Year: Spring ¹	Second Year: Fall ¹	Second Year: Spring ¹
Embryology (Structures)	Medical Genetics	Impact of Illness on Patients & Families	Clinical Rotations
Molecules, Cells & Genomics	Ethical Issues in Clinical Research for the Genetic Counselor	Genetic Counseling III	Psychosocial Supervision
Genetic Counseling I	Genetic Counseling II	Practical Analysis of a Personal Genome	Thesis
Introduction to the Ethical Responsibility of Genetic Counselors	Introduction to Interviewing & Counseling Methods	Medicine, Social Justice, and Public Health
Biostatistics	Culture, Illness & Community Health	Clinical Rotations
	Clinical Rotations ²	Psychosocial Supervision
	Psychosocial Supervision	Thesis

¹All courses are not concurrent.

²Students are expected to be in residence throughout the summer except as designated by the Program Director