

Sponsorship for American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE) Annual Congress Registration

The MHA Program at Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai is excited to announce a sponsorship opportunity for two second-year MHA students to register to attend the American College of Healthcare Executives \(ACHE\) Annual Congress from March 24-27, 2025, at the George R. Brown Convention Center, Houston, Texas.

This prestigious event provides a unique opportunity to engage with leading health care professionals, participate in informative sessions, and enhance your leadership skills. The sponsorship covers the student associate member registration fee for the selected students.

ELIGIBILITY

Students must be:

- a second-year MHA student in good academic standing with a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or higher.
- a current ACHE student associate member.

How to Apply:

1. Prepare your materials:
 - Complete and submit this application.
 - Upload an essay (no more than 500 words) detailing your motivation and goals for attending ACHE Congress.
2. Submit your application by January 15.

SELECTION PROCESS

Only two students will be selected for sponsorship. Preference will be given to those who demonstrate exceptional leadership potential and a clear vision of how participating in the ACHE Congress will benefit their career. Selected students will be notified by February 1.

Key Dates:

- Application Deadline: January 15
- Notification of Selected Students: February 1
- Congress Dates: March 24-27, 2025

POST-CONGRESS REQUIREMENTS

- Submit your registration receipt
- Provide proof of attendance, including your congress badge and at least two photos.
- Submit a brief reflection essay about your experience at the Congress, highlighting key insights and takeaways.
- Social Media Engagement: Share your congress experience on social media tagging @sinai_mha and hashtag #sinaimha