

GRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION

Resident and Fellow of the Month: June 2021

Joe-Ann Moser, MD, MS

Resident (PGY2), Emergency Medicine
Mount Sinai Hospital

Service to Peers: "Joe-Ann is someone who works endlessly to make sure her resident colleagues are doing well. She plans and executes several events throughout the year to ensure resident wellness even amid the pandemic. She is incredibly hardworking, caring, organized, and deals with obstacles with a smile and positive attitude. She will go the extra mile to make sure everyone in our program feels appreciated whether that means planning birthday surprises to checking in on people she's worried are struggling. Her caring attitude extends to patient care and no matter how difficult the patient interaction, she always treats patients with the utmost care and compassion." "In the darkest depths of the pandemic last spring, she helped us stay connected through Zoom events and check ins (in addition to all her work taking care of COVID patients). She is the first to volunteer to help someone else out when they are struggling or to celebrate their triumphs. She continues to be indefatigable in an environment where maintaining such a quality would seem impossible."

George Vasquez Rios, MD

Fellow (PGY4), Nephrology
Mount Sinai Hospital

Service to Peers: "As a visiting resident to MSH, I would like to recognize Dr. Vasquez, who spent a considerable amount of time discussing complex nephrology cases, keeping me involved during rounds and assigning me to patients with unique pathologies. Challenging my knowledge base and broadening my outlook on disease management, he created a scholastically welcoming environment by encouraging questions and teaching critical assessment skills necessary to approach patients with complex renal conditions. His effort to make my rotation at MSH both a relevant and fulfilling experience is worthy of commendation."
