

GRADUATE MEDICAL EDUCATION

Resident and Fellow of the Month: June 2024

Briana Rice, MD, MPH

Resident (PGY4), Obstetrics and Gynecology
Mount Sinai Morningside/Mount Sinai West

Service to patients and/or families; Service to their peers: “Dr. Rice is the epitome of an excellent resident, teacher, surgeon, and advocate. She has been committed to her patients and peers throughout her time in residency. She has outstanding clinical judgement and utilizes every opportunity available to guide her peers in their development as physicians and surgeons. Briana has also been a leader in helping our department develop a sustainable health equity and social justice curriculum, which has had a profound impact on the experiences of residents, faculty, and patients. She has been an exceptional patient advocate, through and through, and a voice for positive change in the lives of her colleagues”

Naveen Galla, MD

Fellow (PGY6), Interventional Radiology-Independent
The Mount Sinai Hospital

Service to patients and/or families; Service to their peers: “Dr. Galla is a shining star in the IR department. In a time where many feel burned out from the year, Naveen continues to show compassion and gratitude to patients and his colleagues. Whether it's counseling patients before difficult procedures or teaching others, Naveen always takes the time to make your needs heard no matter how inconsequential they might seem.” “We had a patient who had a complicated IR needs (multiple assessments and change of plans) and Dr. Galla guided us through a complex treatment plan. He is always reachable and responsive and we, primary team, were very happy with his exceptional skillset as a consultant.”
