ICAHN SCHOOL OF MEDICINE AT MOUNT SINAI
PROHIBITION ON THE MARKETING OF CREDIT CARDS

Purpose

New York State Education Law (Article 129-A, Section 6437) prohibits the advertising, marketing, or merchandising of credit cards to students on college campuses except pursuant to an official credit card marketing policy to protect students from predatory credit cards activities.

Policy Statement

The Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai bans the advertising, marketing, or merchandising of credit cards to students on its campus. In addition, the school will not sell or otherwise make available student lists to credit card companies. The term ‘credit card companies’ as used in this policy includes all financial institutions and any other issuers of credit cards.
