As an academic medical center, we dedicate ourselves to delivering the highest quality health care, to training new physicians and to pursuing scientific and clinical research. This dedication includes meeting the highest professional standards and adhering to the strictest ethical and legal obligations.

Through our Corporate Compliance Program, we seek to ensure our commitment to conducting ourselves ethically and pride ourselves on high standards of integrity. This commitment is reflected in this Code of Conduct, which identifies principles for performance in the workplace and specifies expectations with regard to all applicable laws and regulations. The principles outlined in the Code of Conduct govern the behavior of all trustees, officers, executives, employees, faculty, medical staff members, residents and fellows, students, volunteers, as well as those doing business with us, and protect against unlawful and unethical activity. ### Purpose of the Code of Conduct

The Mount Sinai Health System, comprised of Mount Sinai Beth Israel, Mount Sinai Brooklyn, the Mount Sinai Hospital, Mount Sinai Queens, New York Eye and Ear Infirmary at Mount Sinai, Mount Sinai West, Mount Sinai Morningside, Mount Sinai South Nassau and the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai, as well as various ambulatory care entities and physician practices (hereinafter referred to as “Mount Sinai”) established this Code of Conduct and associated Mount Sinai policies and procedures so that the Board of Trustees, Officers, Executives, Employees, Faculty, Medical Staff members, Residents and Fellows, Students, Volunteers and Consultants, Vendors, Contractors, Subcontractors and Independent Contractors who on behalf of Mount Sinai furnish, or authorize the furnishing of health care items or services, perform billing or coding functions, or who monitor the health care provided by Mount Sinai (i.e., those individuals or entities who contribute to Mount Sinai’s entitlement to payment under the Medicare or Medicaid programs) (hereinafter referred to as “Affected Individuals”) will know and understand expectations of behavior. This Code of Conduct is a framework within which all of us are expected to operate. Responsibility for lawful and ethical behavior is a personal responsibility, and all individuals will be held accountable for their conduct.

The Code of Conduct is intended to be comprehensive and easily understood. It is not meant to answer every question that might arise in your daily activities; however, it does provide guidelines, direction and resources you can use to respond to matters and circumstances in the course of your Mount Sinai duties. No set of guidelines, including our own, can ever substitute for the sound judgment, common sense and personal integrity required to meet the challenges of your job.

Responsibilities

All Affected Individuals are required to:

- Read and abide by this Code of Conduct;
- Be familiar with, understand and observe the basic legal and regulatory requirements that are relevant to their duties;
- Ensure the confidentiality of patient and Mount Sinai-related information;
- Adhere to the highest ethical standards when acting on behalf of Mount Sinai;
- Respect the cultural values and religious beliefs of patients and family members, co-workers, other individuals and visitors;

CORPORATE COMPLIANCE PROGRAM OVERVIEW

- Prevent and/or refrain from discrimination or harassment of any kind, including, but not limited to, race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, marital status, disability, citizenship, genetic predisposition, spousal abuse or any other characteristic protected by law;
- Refrain from conflicts of interest and/or using a position for personal gain; and
- Report possible or actual violations of law or ethical standards.

Compliance Questions

Integrity, common sense and sound judgment are your best guides in determining if your personal actions meet the expected standards for ethical and lawful behavior. However, if you find yourself in a situation where you are unsure, ask yourself these questions.

- Is my action consistent with Mount Sinai practices and legal or regulatory requirements?
- Could my action give the appearance (to others) of impropriety or wrongdoing?
- Will the action bring discredit to any individual, or to Mount Sinai, if disclosed fully to the public?
- Can I defend my action to my supervisor, others and to the general public?
- Does my action meet my personal code of behavior?

Leadership Responsibility for Compliance Communication

Management and supervisors are responsible for communicating the requirements of the Corporate Compliance Program and this Code of Conduct and associated Mount Sinai policies and procedures to those who report to them by emphasizing its importance, taking appropriate measures to detect and correct any violations and prevent recurrence and imposing consistent and appropriate discipline, if warranted.

They shall inform their staff and those doing business with us of any particular issues relevant to their respective department and of the various options, including the Corporate Compliance Helpline, for reporting a compliance concern. Leadership personnel are expected to create and maintain an open environment where staff are encouraged and comfortable to raise compliance concerns or to ask questions without fear of retaliation or intimidation. Adherence to the Code of Conduct and support of the Corporate Compliance Program are components of the staff evaluation process for all employees and management staff.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Organizational Ethics and Quality of Care

Patient Care and Patient Rights

We recognize our ethical and moral obligation to the patients and communities we serve. We treat all patients with respect and dignity and provide a single standard level of care that is both necessary and appropriate.

Upon admission, each patient is provided with the written statement “Patients’ Bill of Rights,” which we are all required to honor. This document, which is posted conspicuously in public areas throughout the Mount Sinai Health System, includes the rights of patients to make decisions about their medical care.

We respect the rights of patients to be involved in all aspects of their care and obtain informed consent for treatment. Thorough and complete records of patient information are maintained.

Emergency Care

Mount Sinai observes the federal Emergency Medical Treatment and Active Labor Act (“EMTALA”) and applicable state law in providing medical screening and stabilizing treatment to any patient who comes to a Mount Sinai hospital with an emergency condition, regardless of ability to pay. Anyone with an emergency condition is treated and admitted based on medical necessity. In an emergency situation, financial and demographic information will be obtained only after the immediate needs of the patient are met.

Confidentiality/Mount Sinai Information

We are committed to maintaining the confidentiality of all proprietary information according to existing laws and standards.

Patient Confidentiality and Privacy

We are committed to complying with all applicable privacy and security laws and regulations including the applicable aspects of the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPAA”). To ensure that we protect our patients’ right to privacy, the following guidelines apply:

- All patients are provided with the written Notice of Privacy Practices;
- Access to Protected Health Information (“PHI”) is limited to those permitted by law and Mount Sinai policy;
- Only legitimate means are used to collect the information and, whenever practical, obtain it directly from the individual concerned;
- Computer passwords and access codes are maintained in a responsible and confidential manner in accordance with Mount Sinai policy;
- Violations of confidentiality breaches are reported to the designated HIPAA Privacy Officer, HIPAA Security Officer or others in the chain of command;
- Patient information is not discussed in any public area, including elevators and dining areas; and
- Adherence to the special confidentiality rules that apply to patients in mental health and drug and alcohol treatment programs, as well as disclosure of information regarding a patient’s HIV status.

Anyone who engages in unauthorized or unlawful disclosure of information in violation of the privacy right of our patients is subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination from employment, removal from the Medical Staff or termination of contract. Individuals also may be subject to civil or criminal penalties.

Confidentiality of Business Data

In addition to patient information, other information created by us is confidential. No one shall, without the written consent of Mount Sinai, disclose any confidential information obtained during the course of employment or engagement by Mount Sinai. Confidential information includes, but is not limited to Mount Sinai's processes, techniques, computer software, equipment, copyrights, research data, clinical and pharmacological data, marketing and sales information, personnel data, patient medical records, patient lists, financial data and any plans that have not been published or disclosed to the general public. You are prohibited from accessing or otherwise using staff records or information unless authorized for a legitimate business purpose.

Additionally, you must not make inappropriate modifications to information or destroy or disclose information except as authorized. Documents containing sensitive data, including patient and Protected Health Information should be properly secured at all times.

You are expected to take reasonable precautions to ensure the physical security of confidential information and facilities.

You are expected to encrypt all email containing patient information and Mount Sinai confidential data sent to recipients outside Mount Sinai.

Conducting Mount Sinai Business

We conduct our business in accordance with all laws and regulations and act in a manner that is in the best interest of our institutions and those we serve.

Oversight of Mount Sinai/Patient Assets

Managers are responsible for establishing appropriate internal controls within their area(s) of purview to safeguard Mount Sinai's assets, ensure the accuracy of financial records and reports and maintain accurate reporting of all transactions. You are expected to observe Mount Sinai's rules and practices for safeguarding not only Mount Sinai's assets but also the property entrusted to us by our patients.

Accuracy, Retention and Disposal of Documents and Records

Everyone is responsible for the integrity and accuracy of our business documents and records in order to comply with regulatory and legal requirements, as well as to ensure that records are available to defend our business practices and actions. No one may alter or falsify information on any record or document.

Trade Practices/Antitrust Issues

We are required to comply with all antitrust laws, which are designed to preserve and foster fair and honest competition within the free enterprise system. These laws could be violated by discussing Mount Sinai business with a competitor, such as how our patient charges are established, disclosing the terms of supplier relationships or agreeing with a competitor to refuse to deal with a supplier. Our competitors are other health systems and facilities in geographic markets where we operate. In general, avoid discussing sensitive topics with competitors or suppliers, unless you are proceeding with the consent of the Legal Department.

Physician Relationships

Any business arrangements with a physician or a physician group are structured to ensure compliance with legal requirements. Such arrangements must be in writing and subject to approval under Mount Sinai's policies and procedures.

Anti-Kickback and Referrals Laws

Federal and state laws prohibit any form of kickback, bribe or rebate (cash or in-kind) to induce the purchase, recommendation to purchase, reduction or limitation of services, or referral of any kind of health care goods and services or items paid for by the Medicare and the Medicaid programs. Mount Sinai does not offer or receive inducements or create situations in which Mount Sinai appears to be offering or receiving an improper inducement.

Referrals

Mount Sinai does not pay for referrals. We accept referrals and admissions based solely on patients' clinical needs and our ability to render the needed services. No employee or any other individual acting on behalf of Mount Sinai is permitted to solicit or receive anything of value, directly or indirectly, in exchange for the referral of patients.

Mount Sinai is committed to ensuring that physicians make appropriate referrals in accordance with applicable federal Stark laws and relevant state laws.

Third Party Payer Relationships

Billing, Coding and Reimbursement

Mount Sinai is committed to full compliance with all laws and regulations relating to billing, coding and reimbursement. This commitment applies to the government programs of Medicare and Medicaid, as well as those of other third party payers. We ensure that all billings to governmental and third-party payers are true and accurately reflect only medically necessary services and other necessary data provided to our patients. You are prohibited from knowingly presenting or causing to be presented claims for payment or approvals that are false, fictitious or fraudulent. Mount Sinai operates oversight systems to verify that claims are submitted only for services actually provided and that services are billed as provided. Appropriate training is provided to those individuals involved in the billing, coding and claim submission process.

Any subcontractors engaged to perform billing or coding services are expected to have the necessary skills, quality control processes, systems and appropriate procedures to ensure that all billing for government and commercial insurance programs are complete and accurate.

If mistakes or errors occur, they are reported to a manager promptly and corrected in a timely and appropriate manner. If improper payment occurs, we will notify the payer promptly and process refunds in a timely manner. Strict compliance with all relevant Medicare and Medicaid laws and regulations is required by all individuals.

Mount Sinai does not routinely waive patients' deductibles or copayments or otherwise provide for financial benefits to patients in return for admission.

Cost Reports

Mount Sinai is committed to complying with federal and state laws requiring the submission of complete and accurate Cost Reports related to hospitals' operations. Those laws and regulations define what costs are allowable and outline the appropriate methodologies to claim reimbursement for the cost of services provided to program beneficiaries. Cost Reports are subject to internal and external audit to ensure that any identified issues are corrected in a timely manner.

Legal and Regulatory Compliance

Deficit Reduction Act of 2005

Mount Sinai is committed to complying with the requirements of section 6032 of the Federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005 (“DRA”) and to preventing and detecting any fraud, waste or abuse. #### Licensure/Accreditation

These and other entities that regulate our hospitals have numerous requirements determining how our hospitals deliver services. You are expected to be familiar with the regulations governing your area and to stay abreast of new developments.

Tax Status

Mount Sinai is exempt from taxation by federal, state and local governments because of its charitable mission. We provide community benefits that include health care services, medical training, education, research and community out-reach activities. Mount Sinai’s sales tax exemption can be used only for legitimate hospital activities. Personal items may not be purchased through Mount Sinai even if Mount Sinai is reimbursed by the individual.

Government Inquiries and Investigations

It is the policy of Mount Sinai to cooperate with and properly respond to all governmental inquiries and investigations. Any employee approached by any federal or state law enforcement or regulatory agency (i.e., Medicare, Medicaid) official seeking information about any aspect of Mount Sinai shall immediately notify their supervisor who in turn must notify the Legal Department and the Department of Assurance and Compliance Services. It is Mount Sinai’s policy to ensure that government agencies are provided promptly with all necessary and appropriate information promptly.

Personal Use of Mount Sinai Resources

Mount Sinai's assets, which include employee work time, materials, supplies, equipment and information, are to be used and maintained primarily for business-related purposes. You may not use these resources in a manner that could be wasteful or embarrassing to Mount Sinai. Any use of Mount Sinai's resources for personal financial gain unrelated to Mount Sinai is prohibited.

Copyright

Mount Sinai employees are prohibited from reproducing any copyrighted materials without the express permission of the copyright holder, unless appropriately licensed from the copyright holder. All employees are required to adhere to laws and policies relating to intellectual property, including patents, trademarks and copyrights.

Electronic Media

All communications systems, electronic mail, Internet and Intranet access and voicemails are the property of Mount Sinai and are to be primarily used for business purposes. Limited responsible personal use of communications systems is permitted; however, Mount Sinai reserves the right to monitor the use of its electronic media resources and to take appropriate disciplinary measures in cases of misuse. ### Harassment/Workplace Violence

All individuals have the right to work in an environment free of harassment. Mount Sinai does not tolerate harassment by anyone based on the diverse characteristics or cultural backgrounds of those who work at Mount Sinai. Degrading or humiliating jokes, slurs, intimidation or other harassing conduct is not acceptable. Any form of sexual harassment is strictly prohibited. This prohibition includes unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors in conjunction with employment decisions, as well as other verbal or physical conduct that creates a hostile work environment. Mount Sinai does not tolerate workplace violence, which includes threatening, aggressive or abusive behavior. Any form of hate speech is strictly prohibited. Moreover, as part of our commitment to a safe workplace, all individuals are prohibited from possessing firearms, other weapons or other dangerous instruments and materials on the premises of Mount Sinai.

Immigration

Federal law prohibits Mount Sinai from hiring individuals who are not legally authorized to work in this country.

Loyalty and Conflicts of Interest

Conflicts of Interest

In the course of conducting Mount Sinai business, we are expected to put Mount Sinai's interests ahead of any outside business, commercial or personal interest. You should avoid situations in which a conflict of interest, or the appearance of a conflict, could arise. A conflict of interest may also exist if the demands of your outside activities influence or appear to influence your ability to make objective decisions in the course of your Mount Sinai job responsibilities.

Mount Sinai has a Conflicts of Interest process whereby trustees, faculty and certain categories of employees are required to complete an annual conflicts of interest disclosure statement. Because it is impossible to describe every potential conflict of interest scenario, Mount Sinai relies on your commitment to exercise sound judgment, to seek advice when appropriate and to adhere to the highest ethical standards in the conduct of your professional and personal interactions. Anyone who believes he or she has a conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest shall immediately report it to his or her supervisor, department manager or the Corporate Compliance Office. For additional guidance as to Mount Sinai's policy on these types of issues, the Conflicts of Interest policy should be consulted.

Outside or Dual Employment

Gifts and Entertainment/Business Courtesies

Gifts and entertainment represent an area of potential conflict in situations where a competitive, regulatory, supervisory or adversarial relationship could exist. Giving or accepting gifts and entertainment can sometimes be construed as an attempt to unduly influence a relationship.

It is Mount Sinai's policy that all gifts from vendors are strictly prohibited. Solicitation of personal gifts or entertainment is never permissible.

You may, however, receive from a grateful patient or patient's family certain perishable or consumable gifts given to a group or a department (e.g. flowers, candy), which are considered items of nominal value. Under no circumstances may you solicit gifts from patients or their families.

There may be times when employees may wish to accept from a current or potential business associate an invitation to attend a social event, participate in training and educational opportunities or receive information about new products or services; however, employees should seek reimbursement from Mount Sinai for associated expenses in accordance with existing policy.

Questions related to gifts, entertainment and business courtesies should be referred to the Corporate Compliance Office.

The Chief Compliance Officer is responsible for the implementation of the Corporate Compliance Program. The Chief Compliance Officer provides periodic reports to the Compliance Oversight Committee and the Audit and Compliance Committee of the Board of Trustees.

Obligation to Report

All Affected Individuals have a responsibility and are required to report, through the appropriate chain of command, any activity by any Affected Individual who appears to violate applicable laws, rules, regulations or this Code of Conduct, or encourages, directs, facilitates or permits non-compliant behavior. Failure to make an appropriate report may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment, removal from the Medical Staff or termination of contract. Reporting enables the potential problem to be investigated promptly and addressed in a timely and appropriate manner.

What to Report

Report concerns about any legal, ethical, quality, behavioral or practical issue or any activity that you think may be a problem. Pay particular attention to issues related to federal and state health care programs (i.e. Medicare, Medicaid). Reasonable belief that a violation is possible is sufficient to initiate a report. To help you determine whether an issue should be reported, consider the following questions.

- Does the matter comply with pertinent Mount Sinai policies and procedures?
- Is the action legal? Is it ethical?
- How would the action appear if it were disclosed to the public?

Resources for Reporting Violations

Reports of suspected or actual violations can be made in person, by e-mail, by telephone or in writing. Reports by employees should first be made, if possible, to the individual's supervisor or department manager. Reports may also be made directly to any department listed in the directory at the end of this booklet, to the Department of Human Resources, Department of Legal Affairs or directly to the Corporate Compliance Office.

The Corporate Compliance Helpline is an additional means of enabling individuals to report problems and concerns or obtain clarification about compliance issues anonymously or confidentially. Helpline conversations are not recorded or traced. The Helpline is not a substitute for established grievance policies or chain of command communications, however, and only should be used after other available reporting mechanisms have been considered. The toll-free Helpline # is 800-853-9212. The Corporate Compliance Office investigates all Helpline calls.

Reporting Concerns - Non-Retaliation/Non-Intimidation

Retaliation and/or intimidation against any Affected Individual who seeks advice, raises a concern or reports an ethical or compliance issue in good faith will not be tolerated. Anyone who deliberately makes a false accusation with the purpose of harming or retaliating against another individual will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination from employment, removal from Medical Staff or termination of contract.

Internal Investigations

Mount Sinai is committed to investigating all reported concerns promptly and confidentially to the extent possible. The Corporate Compliance Office has the requisite authority to investigate allegations, concerns and other pertinent matters in order to bring about appropriate resolution and closure. Based on the nature of the complaint/report, the Corporate Compliance Office may refer the matter to another Department/party to perform the investigation and determine the appropriate resolution and closure. We expect all individuals to cooperate with investigation efforts.

Corrective Action

Where an internal investigation substantiates a reported violation, appropriate corrective measures will be taken, including but not limited to, notifying the appropriate governmental agency, instituting appropriate disciplinary action and other actions implementing systemic changes to prevent a similar violation from recurring in the future. Corrective action plans will be shared with all appropriate parties.

Consequences of Non-Compliance

Failure to comply with applicable laws and regulations, including federal and state health care program requirements, or with the requirements of this Code of Conduct or Mount Sinai's policies and procedures, or to report violations or suspected violations, could pose significant risks to Mount Sinai, as well as to the patients we serve.

Examples of consequences to Mount Sinai for non-compliance include: exclusion from participation in federal and state health care programs, such as Medicare and Medicaid; and criminal and/or civil fines and penalties.
